Exploring key skills through drama Elective Workshop for teachers of junior cycle

JCT in partnership with Mary Farrelly

Step into the theatre as Mary Farrelly, choreographer, dance and drama facilitator leads this hands-on active exploration of Junior Cycle key skills through the prism of drama. The first in our Prism series, this workshop promises to be engaging, practical and fun. Explore and reflect on Mary's methodologies developed over her years of experience in special needs drama facilitation and youth theatre

Mary Farrelly is a choreographer, dance and drama facilitator. Her practice focuses on programming for children and young people in a variety of theatre, community and education settings. She is currently working as a youth theatre and special needs drama facilitator at the Ramor Theatre.

As spaces are limited, we would request that the school Principal (or his/her nominee), rather than individual teachers, submit the online registration on www.jctregistration.ie

Note: You will find our Spring 2020 programme on the new Arts in Junior Cycle section of our website www.jct.ie

Creative Ireland Programme 2017-2022 and Junior Cycle for Teachers (JCT) are delighted to present a series of professional development workshops for teachers to support engagement with the arts and learning in Junior Cycle. The workshops embody the principles and key skills which underpin the new Framework for Junior Cycle and provide teachers with practical and creative methodologies to use in their classroom. This initiative is guided by the principles expressed in the Arts in Education Charter and originated from an Arts Council and JCT pilot partnership initiative which started in 2014.
