

Junior Cycle for Teachers: Series of Symposia 2019

Date / Start and Finish Time	Subject	Venue	Title of event
11 th May 9:00-4:00	History	Collins Barracks	JCT History inaugural symposium is on the 11th of May (9.00-4.00) in Collins Barracks , Dublin. The focus of the Symposium is to explore the classroom learning potential of Historical research in Junior Cycle, HARP - History and Research in Partnership. It will provide an opportunity for historians to share research practice that can support young historians. It will include hands on sessions with Museums, Archives and Historians, as well as an opportunity for teachers to share their practice in a Teachmeet.
11 Bealtaine 2019 (11 th May) 9.15am - 4.30pm	Gaeilge	Campas Phádraig* Ollscoil Chathair Bhaile Átha Cliath Droim Conrach BÁC 9 D09 DY00 *IarCholáiste Phádraig	Gaeilge Campas Phádraig , Ollscoil Chathair Bhaile Átha Cliath, 11 Bealtaine (9.15-4.30) RATH, An rath a roinnt: Cleachtais ranga phraiticiúla Beidh múinteoirí rannpháirteach i gceardlanna praiticiúla ar úsáid agus ar chur i bhfeidhm mhodheolaíochtaí núálacha; straitéisí teagaisc éifeachtacha d'obair ghrúpa agus aipeanna/feidhmchláir san áireamh. Chuige sin, beidh sé cabhrach (gan a bheith éigeantach) gléas cliste a thabhairt leat. Beidh Oid-Ócáid (Teachmeet) mar chuid thábhachtach den lá nuair a roinnfidh múinteoirí (réamheagraithe) a dtaithí ar chuir chuige agus ar ghníomhaíochtaí teagaisc agus foghlama ar éirigh leo ina rang-ghrúpaí féin i réimse leathan de ghnéithe na foghlama.
18 th of May (TBC) 9:00-4:00	Classics	UCD Classics Library (TBC)	Classics, UCD Classics Library, 18th May (9.00-4.00). Hands on workshops for teachers on teaching language using archaeological evidence to support literary evidence – for non -language teachers using archaeological evidence to support literary evidence on daily life in ancient civilisations. The ACE programme in London are coming to do a talk around the importance of Classical education on a 21 st century education system. The classical youth society would like to produce a podcast with teachers throughout the day.
18 th May 9:00-4:00	Business Studies	Ballymakenny College Drogheda Co. Louth	Business Studies, Ballymakenny College , Drogheda, Co Louth, 18 th May (9.00-4.00). Exploring and considering skills for learning, skills for work and skills for life through discussion and reflection. The day will include a teach-meet event to provide attendees with a window into the Junior Cycle Business Studies classroom. Presentations from Business Studies Teachers and students. Plenary speakers from Enterprise Ireland and the CCPC.
25 th May 2019 10:00 -15:30 Registration 9:30	Home Economics	Airfield Estate Dundrum, Dublin	Home Economics, Airfield Estate , Dundrum, Dublin 25th May (10.00-15.30) reg 9.30. This symposium will give you the opportunity to experience the Elements of the Junior Cycle Home Economics Specification in the beautiful surroundings of Airfield Estate. The day will include a number of speakers and workshops which will explore Home Economics education for all.

Teachers can only register for a symposium through their school on www.jctregistration.ie